McMaster University - Faculty of Engineering

Bylaws

Preamble

These Bylaws were developed in 2020 in an effort to solidify the activities and policies of the McMaster Engineering Society (MES), separate from the Policy Manual. The policies documented here are intended to accompany the Constitution and Policy Manual of the McMaster Engineering Society and are binding terms of reference.

This Bylaw Document will assist in the transition of the MES from year to year, and will also clarify the fundamental operations of the Society. This document is meant to serve as a guide for everyday operations, but is also intended to be a more flexible document than the Constitution, but less so than the Policy Manual. The procedures for amending this document are set out in the Constitution.

Overall this document will help the MES to operate more effectively and efficiently in its effort to represent and serve the undergraduate engineering student body at McMaster.

If a contradiction occurs between the Bylaws and the Constitution, the Constitution will take precedence.

6 MES Robert's Rules of Order

The following are meeting procedures to be followed in General Meetings and MES Council meetings. Robert's Rules of Order is a strict, but practical system for running meetings. The MES follows its own version of Robert's Rules of Order as outlined below.

6.1 ELEVEN FUNDAMENTAL RULES OF PROCEDURE

1. Principles
 - (a) The right of majority to decide
 - (b) The right of minority to be heard
 - (c) The right of individual members
 - (d) The right of absentees

2. All voting members of the MES Council are equal and their rights are equal. These rights are:
 - (a) To attend council meetings
 - (b) To speak
 - (c) To move motions
 - (d) To second motions
 - (e) To vote
 - (f) To concede their rights to others
3. All non-voting members of the MES Team are equal and their rights are equal. These rights are:
 - (a) To attend council meetings
 - (b) To speak
 - (c) To move motions
 - (d) To second motions
 - (e) To concede their rights to others
4. All McMaster undergraduate students in the Faculty of Engineering are equal and their rights are equal. These rights are:
 - (a) To attend council meetings
 - (b) To speak
 - (c) To move motions
5. The chair has the following powers:
 - (a) To speak when clarification is necessary
 - (b) To determine the speaking order
 - (c) To count votes
 - (d) To interpret the MES Policy Manual, Bylaws, and Constitution
 - (e) To recognize members
 - (f) To decide what is in order
 - (g) To remove members from council dependent on a two thirds majority vote of council.
6. The rights of MES supersede the rights of individual members: Should a conflict arise between the rights of the MES and the rights of an individual member, the rights of MES shall take precedence.
7. Quorum must be present at MES Council meetings for business to be done. Quorum shall consist of half of all voting members of the MES Council as outlined by the MES Constitution, unless otherwise stated in the MES Policy Manual, Bylaws, or Constitution.

8. It is the responsibility of every voting member of the MES Council to vote. If they do not vote, it shall be assumed that they are abstaining from the vote.
9. One speaker at a time: Only one speaker recognized by the chair has the right to talk at any given moment.
10. Personal remarks are always out of order, the chair maintains the right, by a two thirds majority, to remove members from meetings for failing to comply with this rule.
11. If there is ever a dispute on a decision/interpretation the chair has made, any voting member of the MES Council may move to challenge the chair and their decision. This motion, which would require a seconder, would open up discussion to the floor about the decision/interpretation. Each member will be allowed to speak once to the decision/interpretation, closing with the chair defending their decision/interpretation. Following the chair's statement, there shall be a vote. If there is a two thirds majority in favor of overruling the chair's decision/interpretation, the chair will accept the decision as their own and move onwards or the chair will be required to relinquish the chair.

6.2 MOTIONS

There are two kinds of motions: Main Motions and Secondary Motions.

6.2.1 Main Motions

A main motion is defined as a proposal that certain action be taken or an opinion be expressed by the organization.

1. All main motions must be submitted to the Administrator at least 24 hours before the meeting at which it will be moved.
2. A main motion brought toward the MES will be read to the MES Council by the chair.
3. A main motion must be seconded in order to proceed to presentation and/or debate.
4. Movers and seconders may each make a short presentation outlining the action.
5. Debate is struck. The chair recognizes members who wish to speak by stating their names. In the case of multiple speakers, a cue will be established and decided by the chair.
6. Debate should continue as long as members wish to discuss the question unless the chair has put the question to a vote or secondary motions have been adopted to either limit or close debate.
7. When a main motion is put to question, the chair shall restate the motion. Voting members are instructed to raise their hand when those in favour, opposition, or abstention are called by the chair. Any singular vote may be noted by name, exclusively by request from the member to whom that vote belongs.
8. Voting results are counted by the chair and Administrator, and the result of the main motion is announced to the MES Council by the chair.

9. A main motion shall pass if the votes in favour are counted to be half plus one of the total votes, unless specifically stated otherwise in the MES Constitution, Bylaws, or Policy Manual.
10. All motions must be in compliance with the MES Constitution, Bylaws, and Policy Manual as interpreted by the chair.

6.2.2 Secondary Motions

Secondary motions are motions that may be made while the main motion is on the floor and before it has been decided. More than one motion can be on the floor but only one main motion. All pending motions must relate to the main motion on the floor, no new business may be introduced.

Secondary motions have rank among each other. They are arranged in a specific order in which they must be considered and acted upon, some motions taking precedence over others. The purpose is to avoid confusion when they are applied to a main motion. A motion of higher rank can be made at the time that a motion of lower rank is on the floor.

6.2.3 THE RANKS OF SECONDARY MOTIONS

CALL TO QUESTION
LIMIT OR EXTEND LIMITS TO DEBATE OR QUESTIONS
POSTPONE TO A SPECIFIC TIME
COMMIT OR REFER
AMEND
MAIN MOTION

Rank can be symbolized by the rungs of a ladder. Those motions on the lower rungs must yield to the motions on the rung or rungs above. For instance call to question, which calls for an immediate vote, takes precedence over all motions below it. All secondary motions listed in the table above must be seconded and are debatable.

6.2.4 WHAT DO I SAY?

Secondary Motions Arranged From Lowest to Highest Rank:

To Do This	Motion	You Say This	Votes Required	Re-
Change Word- ing of Motion	Amend	“I move to amend the mo- tion by...” (Adding, Striking Out, Substituting)	Majority
Send Motion to Committee	Commit	“I move that the motion be re- ferred to...”	Majority
Postpone Mo- tion	Postpone	“I move that the motion be post- poned to...”	Majority
Limit Debate Time	Limit Debate	“I move that debate be limited to...”	Two-thirds
End Debate	Call to Question	“I move to call the question.”	Two-thirds

Amend

Amend is the most frequently used and most important of the secondary motions. There are three ways to amend a motion:

1. To add words or phrases.
2. To strike out words or phrases.
3. To substitute by
 - (a) striking out and inserting words;
 - (b) substituting an entire motion or paragraph.

The first speakers to respond to a proposed amendment are the mover and seconder of the main motion. If they choose to adopt the amendment, it is deemed friendly and does not need to be voted upon and the main motion is changed. The chair must then read the new main motion on the floor. If the mover or seconder does not choose to adopt the amendment, it is deemed unfriendly, and the chair must open debate and hold a vote to adopt it.

Commit

To commit a motion sends the main motion on the floor to a committee so that it can be carefully studied and put into proper form for the MES Council to consider, and bring back the main motion to the MES Council with a report of their findings.

Postpone

A motion to postpone delays action on a question until later in the same meeting or until another specified meeting. This motion is useful when information regarding the pending motion will be available at a later time, a member realizes their delegation is not present for the vote, or it is time for recess or adjournment.

Limit Debate

Limit debate is the motion by which the MES Council can exercise special control over the debate by:

1. Reducing the number and length of speeches allowed.

2. Requiring that debate be limited to a period of time, at the end of which, the vote must be taken.

Call to Question

Call to question is the motion used to cut off debate and to bring the group to an immediate vote on the pending motion

6.2.5 Motion Labeling

1. Motions may be labeled with a unique ID to allow for easier historical referencing.
2. The naming convention shall be Year-Month-Day-MeetingType-MotionNumber
3. The following Meeting Types will be:
 - (a) EM: Executive Meeting
 - (b) CM: Council Meeting
 - (c) GM: General Meeting

6.3 TALKING SYSTEM

1. Should you have a new point to bring up in discussion, you should raise your hand as well as your index finger to be put on the speaking list.
2. Should you have a direct response, you should raise your hand as well as your index and middle finger to be put on the speaking list. This takes precedence over new points, however it may only be used to make a direct response to something recently said. Such a direct response must stay on the same topic as the point to which it is responding, it is at the discretion of the chair to decide if the response does not meet this criteria.
3. Should you have a point of clarification, you should raise your hand as well as your pinky finger.
